SHELL OPENS UP WAY FOR BADLY NEEDED TUNNEL

Germany's Unknowingly Save the Commander of Citadel's Vast Amount of Digging; Other Verdun Incidents.

(Associated Press Correspondence.)

Verdun, France, Sept. 30.—While the shooting of shells has been a tremendous amount of digging has been done in the vicinity of Verdun. The digging is done in the form of a series of shallow trenches, which are used for the purpose of protecting the soldiers from the enemy's fire.

ready transfer of troops, supplies and refugees from one side of the Meuse to the other. The main bridge leading to the principal business street, is flanked along the river by stone and concrete towers to prevent shells and shrapnel from falling into the river. But the bridge itself does not show a scratch and so it is with all the other bridges.

It is the same with the "trenches" as the military men called them—a great mass of concrete and masonry leading into the town, railway terminals, shops, etc. In the town itself and its nearby suburbs, these "trenches" are as good as ever, though further back in the part over run by the Germans they have doubtless suffered a good deal.

After the shells had ceased to fall and the bridge had been repaired, General Duhesne considered that the work of the shell would be turned to useful account. The bridge built through the fortifications was prepared to be used as a road, and now it represents the appearance of a new road leading through the town.

These windows at Fort Vaux after the German assault was made. The Germans got to the top wall, but our men were at the windows below. Then the Germans, in order to reach our men, lowered explosive bombs in baskets attached to ropes. As the bombs hung outside our windows, they exploded them by a time fuse.

This was something very deadly when one of our men suffered death on the spot, and when he fell, he fell on the ground, and the explosion of the bomb, setting the bombs and bombs back to the foot of the wall.

"The day before, the wall was on our side, and when it was on the other, setting the bombs and bombs back to the foot of the wall."

This was announced at southern department headquarters today.

OUT OF $56,000,000 JUST $250,000 IS SPENT IN FINAL TESTS TO MAKE DOUBLY SURE YOUR CHALMERS IS RIGHT—DEAD RIGHT

This $56,000,000 "run" on the 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers has not stampered the Chalmers factory.

Quite the contrary. The cars are coming out of there so fine, so exact, so thoroughly tested, that all we have to do now when we take them off the freight cars is to pour in oil, gas and water, run them a few miles, and deliver.

There's an excellent reason for this condition. The Chalmers Company has a young army of eagle-eyed inspectors who take great pride in finding a fault in a car when it comes out of the plant.

This costs just $250,000 a year in cold cash—just one quarter of a million dollars a year to "catch the little things."

I firmly believe that most factories would let "go by" nine cars out of ten that the Chalmers inspectors waylay.

It sounds like a lot of money, but when a company maintains the slogan of "Quality First" and bases a $56,000,000 business on the quality idea, then it becomes quite clear.

I firmly believe that three times $250,000 is returned to the cash drawer of the Chalmers Company every year through such a policy.

It certainly makes selling a Chalmers car anything but a difficult matter. And that accounts for the "run" on the car. For "run" it surely is.

I am handling from three to five times as many Chalmers cars as this territory ever absorbed before.

Last November the Chalmers Dealers bought $22,000,000 worth of 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers in forty minutes.

These Cars were all made and delivered before summer rolled around. Then 10,000 more were added. These were taken up during the summer months.

Now 20,000 more are coming through.

That means that this model will be continued without change in design into next season.

It also means a $56,000,000 business. Which is twice more than the most optimistic Chalmers executive ever dared dream.

The quality in the car is the answer.

Drive one a mile, and you won't be able to get your monogram painted on the doors quick enough.
